

RUSH & MOLLOY

By George Rush and Joanna Rush Molloy

With Jo Piazza and Chris Rovzar
email: rushmolloy@nydailynews.com

SIDE DISH

COLIN FARRELL and Playmate Nicole Narain tried to shut down the Web site peddling their sex tape. But yesterday, we found www.dirtycolin.com still up and running. Farrell's endowment lives up to his billing. But the "New World" star's lines could use a rewrite. He tells Narain: "If a [bleeping] camera could blush, it would be [bleeping] red because you are so [bleeping] hot." Later, he cautions her on technique: "If you keep doing that, we won't have to shave me in the shower tomorrow." ... ARE THERE any drugs left in England that haven't been found on rocker Pete Doherty?

Just days after pleading guilty to having heroin and coke in his Jaguar, Kate Moss' ex-boyfriend was busted Saturday on suspicion of possessing a new stash. ...
BAD NEWS for Starbucks: Jim Carrey says, "I have one coffee a day now rather than seven. The world is living in a coffee-induced hyper mode that is insane." The world, or you, Jim? Education Secretary Margaret Spellings, for one, maps out Starbucks locations when she travels. Visiting Seattle last week, she even snapped a photo of the very first Starbucks, according to U.S. News & World Report. ... ADAM DAVIES, whose first novel, "The Frog King," was optioned by GreeneStreet Films, is already hearing from producers hot for his second, "Goodbye Lemon," a family drama. ... Davies is now hatching a high-concept heist plot. He's been doing so much research, his friends hope he doesn't get arrested.

Working blue You can bet it's not just the action that's naughty on Colin Farrell's sex tape. Such language!